If a provider received Base Per-Staff funds that were supposed to go to specific staff that are no longer employed at the program, those funds can be used for other Program B allowable expenses to support recruitment and retention efforts for existing or future employees with approved background checks.

All documentation (payroll records, receipts/statements, etc.) must clearly show:

- Date of cost incurred (example: payroll period date)
- Description of how funds were used (example: payroll, pay increase, bonus, paid time off, etc.)

For example:

If you are submitting documentation to show that staff included on the application received a bonus using Program B funds for November, December, and January, you could include the following:

- Payroll documentation for each employee listed on the application showing wages paid for November through January

OR

- Communication to staff explaining the compensation increase (wages, bonus, benefits) AND
- Financial statement or payroll records showing funds paid out to staff for November through January
