

Scenario: 4

- Initial application for W-2 and Child Care.
- Both W-2 and Child Care are denied for high income.
- The CC office address is different from W-2 office address. W-2 office address is used for return address on page-1. CC office address is printed on Child Care page. If there is CC approval, the Child Care office address would appear at the end of the second step of 2-step process.
- Case language is French. We only have infrastructure to print the notice in English, Spanish and Hmong. So, the notice is printed in English. The first box on page-1 displays translation help information in French (Primary Person's language).

Do you disagree with the Child Care or W-2 decision?

If you disagree with the Child Care decision you have the right to request a Fair Hearing.

What is a fair hearing review?

A fair hearing gives you the chance to tell why you think there has been a wrong decision about your [eligibility/authorization]. At the hearing, a hearing officer will hear from you and the local agency to find out if the decision was right or wrong. You may bring a friend or family member with you to the hearing. You may also be able to get free legal help. To learn more about free legal help, call XXX-XXX-XXXX.

How long do you have to ask for a fair hearing?

Your request for a fair hearing review must be received by 12/08/2006.

How do you request a fair hearing?

You can ask for a hearing at the agency where you applied for Child Care. You may also send a written request for a fair hearing to the Division of Hearings & Appeals, PO Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875, or fax it to 608-264-9885. Fair hearing forms can be found on the Internet at <http://dha.state.wi.us/home/WFS/WFSHrgReqForm.pdf>. If you will need a language translator, sign language interpreter or other accommodation for a disability during the hearing, please include that information in your written request.

If you disagree with the W-2 decision you have the right to request a fact finding review.

What is a fact finding review?

A fact finding review gives you the chance to tell why you think there has been a wrong decision about your eligibility. At the review, a person called the Fact Finder will hear from you and the agency to find out if the decision was right or wrong. You may bring a friend or family member with you to the fact finding. You may also be able to get free legal help. To learn more about free legal help, call XXX-XXX-XXXX.

How long do you have to ask for a fact finding review?

Your request for a fact finding review must be received by 12/08/2006.

How do you request a fact finding review?

You can request a fact finding review by calling or writing your worker or W-2 agency shown on page 1 of this notice or by going to the W-2 agency and asking for a Request For Wisconsin Works (W-2) Fact Finding Review form. This form can also be found on the Internet at http://dwd.wisconsin.gov/dwd/forms/dws/pdf/DWSW_10783.pdf. If you will need a language translator, sign language interpreter or other accommodation for a disability during the Fact Finding review, please include that information in your request.

Other information you need to know about a fact finding review.

- W-2 services will not continue if you request a fact finding review.
- If you or your representative fail to appear at the fact finding review without good cause, your request will be dismissed.
- You can reapply for W-2 services at any time, even if you have requested a fact finding review.

If you disagree with both of your Child Care and W-2 decisions, you must request each type of review.
