• Matching essential personnel and child care programs
  o What is meant by matching essential workforce families and child care providers?
    ▪ The Matching overview doc provides an overview of the process to match essential workforce and providers.
  o How do I ensure my enrollment information is up-to-date so essential workers find a program that meets their needs?
    ▪ Child care providers should update their enrollment information in the Provider Portal.
  o How will I know when an essential worker is interested or in need of care by my program?
    ▪ A representative from DCF, Wisconsin Early Childhood Association (WECA), Supporting Families Together Association (SFTA), or Child Care Resource & Referral agencies (CCR&R) will contact you directly to ensure a spot is available. If the spot is available, the representative will inform the essential worker, who will contact the program directly.
    ▪ An essential work may contact programs directly by using the Child Care Map, which uses program-specific information from the Provider Portal.
  o Can I volunteer to work in the home of an essential worker or for another program?
    ▪ DCF is matching individuals with essential workers that are requesting in-home care and with programs in need of staff. Please complete this survey to indicate your preferences and other relevant information. Someone from WECA will contact you when a match with a family occurs.
