Update: Wisconsin Shares Subsidy Amount Increase for Children Birth to Age Three

The Department of Children and Families' (DCF) Division of Early Care and Education increased your Wisconsin Shares subsidy amount for infants and toddlers as part of the 53206 Initiative pilot program. This program is for families living in the 53206 zip code.

This temporary increase in Wisconsin Shares funding on your MyWICChildCare Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card will continue and remain the same through June 30, 2023.

Your Monthly Wisconsin Shares Subsidy Changes
Months Your MyWICChildCare EBT Card will receive added funding	Full-time Subsidy Increase	Part-time Subsidy Increase
July 2021 through June 2023	$105	$79

This initiative highlights the continued efforts of DCF and Governor Tony Evers' 53206 Early Care and Education Initiative to support equitable access to high-quality early care and education settings for your children, impact the quality of care provided to your children, and provide more resources to your child care provider.
