Description of the incident, including the suspected cause of death, injury or egregious abuse or neglect:

On June 22, 2013, the agency received a report regarding a seven-week old infant presented at the hospital with a broken leg. The infant was transported to a Children's Hospital where medical professionals diagnosed a broken leg and a brain bleed, not from birth, but from abuse such as shaking. Law Enforcement initiated an investigation. The mother stated she left the infant in the care of the father on June 21, 2013 at 3:45pm to go to work and returned on June 22, 2013 at 12:30 am. She heard the infant cry and tried to feed the infant, but the infant would not eat. She stated she and her mother noticed the infant had a swollen foot with a red mark. The mother woke the father and they transported the child to the emergency room. The father stated he took the infant to an event and upon return home, fed and changed the infant's diaper. He then placed the infant on the corner of the bed. The father stated he saw the infant start to fall so he grabbed its leg, flung the infant into the air, heard a loud "pop" and the infant began to cry. The father stated he tried to comfort the infant; he said the infant's legs and feet were moving so he placed her in the pack and play and went to bed. He was awoken by the mother stating they needed to take the infant to the emergency room.

The father was arrested and charged with Child Abuse-Recklessly Cause Harm-Felony and Neglecting a Child (Consequence is Great Bodily Harm). A criminal charge is merely an allegation and a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

Findings by agency, including maltreatment determination and material circumstances leading to incident:

The agency collaborated with law enforcement and medical personnel to complete the assessment. The Initial Assessment completed by the agency found a preponderance of the evidence to substantiate physical abuse and neglect to the infant by the father. The agency determined both children in the home unsafe and filed a Child in Need of Protection or Services petition and the case was opened for ongoing case management services.
