The Permanency Roundtable Team Members
Role Qualifications and Expectations:

The Permanency Roundtable process requires seven unique team members participate in the two-hour meeting in order to maintain fidelity of the process. The team members’ qualifications and expectations are identified below.

1. Administrator/Policy Expert
   The preference would be for the county to fill this role. County Administrators have the specific knowledge and understanding of the county rules and policies.
   - This role can be filled by a:
     - County Director
     - County Deputy Director
     - County Supervisor or Manager
     - Tribal Supervisor, Manager or Director
     - DCF Section Manager or Bureau Director
   - The person in this role must:
     - Possess a wealth of child welfare content expertise
     - Have practice experience with public child welfare systems
     - Have strong understanding of internal and external processes, policies, Administrative Rules and State Statutes.

2. County Caseworker
   - This role must be filled by the worker assigned to the case. If the worker is unavailable to participate in the PRT, the case can not be scheduled until the worker is available.
     - This excludes cases that are temporarily assigned to another worker due to medical leave, or long-term leave.
   - The person in this role must:
     - Prior to the permanency roundtable prepares for the PRT by:
       - Reviewing the Oral Presentation Tool and preparing answers for each of the relevant questions
       - Develop a genogram of all the family members (this is not mandatory)
       - Develop a timeline starting with the original removal and include any moves and the types of placements (this is not mandatory)
     - Present the case to the team using the oral presentation tool appropriate for the case type
   - The genogram and timeline are not mandatory but are strongly encouraged. Workers and supervisors have acknowledged the usefulness of these tools during and after a PRT. Team members have also found them helpful during the different phases of the PRT.

Tribal Worker (Required team member for a tribal PRT)
- This role is filled by the tribal worker that is assigned to the case or their designee.
- The person in this role must:
  - Prior to the permanency roundtable prepares for the PRT by:

Updated 09/12/2012
The Permanency Roundtable process can be enhanced by involving other professionals that are a part of the child’s team or are participating for training purposes. These professionals are not required to participate in the Permanency Values Training. Optional Team Members could involve:

1. Placement Agency Social Worker/Program Manager
   - This role is filled by the social worker that provides direct case management to the child placed in a private child-placing agency foster home, a group home, or a Residential Care Center
   - The person in this role must:
     - Provide supplemental information about the case being presented
     - Respond to questions
     - Participate in the different phases of the PRT

2. Adoption Worker or Supervisor
   - This role is filled by the adoption worker assigned to the child or sibling group by the private contract agency partners. The supervisor can fill this role if the adoption worker is unavailable and the supervisor is familiar with the case.
   - The person in this role must:
     - Provide supplemental information about the case being presented
     - Respond to questions
     - Participate in the different phases of the PRT
     - Consider completing action steps, if appropriate

3. Other County Staff
   - This role can be filled by other county professionals that are involved in the child or siblings case. Examples of county professionals could be:
     - A Foster Care Coordinator
     - A caseworker that was previously assigned to the case
     - A Coordinated Service Team worker
     - A Children’s Long-Term Support Waiver, Birth to 3, or Family Support worker
   - The person in this role must:
     - Provide supplemental information about the case being presented
     - Respond to questions
     - Participate in the different phases of the PRT
     - Consider completing action steps, if appropriate

4. Observer:
   - This role is not required and should only be used for training purposes. It should not be filled for any other reason. There should be no more than two observers at any PRT. When scheduling a PRT it should be taken into consideration if the professional meets the qualifications for any other team member role, if they do, they should fill the team role. Examples of training purposes:
     - A professional is training to become a certified facilitator. However this person should first be considered for the role of external consultant since they have met all the requirements for the role.
     - A new staff member has been hired and needs to observe the process
