

Citizen Review Panel Final Report

August 15, 2025

Wisconsin Department of Children and Families

What is a Citizen Review Panel?

- Citizen Review Panels are groups of volunteer citizens working with the Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (DCF) and local child welfare agencies to improve child protective services.
- Each panel provides an annual report to DCF describing the panel's activities and includes recommendations to improve the child welfare system (due end of August to DCF)
- The panels are created under the federal Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA).
- The Milwaukee Child Welfare Partnership Council (MCWPC) has been designated the Citizen Review Panel for Milwaukee County under Chapter 48 (Section 562) Children's Code.

Question #1

- Any recommendations for policies and plans for the improvement of the child welfare system in Milwaukee County and State Level?

Questions #2

- Any recommendations for evaluating the effectiveness of the child welfare system in Milwaukee County and State Level?

Strategic Planning July 2025-June 2026

- DCF is working to align Citizen Review Panel activities and recommendations with the state's CAPTA plan and as part of Wisconsin's Putting Families First initiative. This initiative has three transformation priorities:
 1. Strengthen local communities and building services to support families in their homes
 2. Keep children in family settings whenever possible.
 3. Supporting the workforce with solutions and improvements.

Any recommendations for DMCCPS and/or DCF for the above three areas?

Next Steps

- Information to be incorporated in Citizen Review Panel Report
- Submitted to DCF by the week of August 25, 2025
