Accomplishments

- 32 of 33 families avoided re-entry into child welfare system
- Getting parent enrolled into college courses (EPP @ Marquette)
- Relocating family out of state
- Housing (relocation) effect on child's behavioral health
- Sealing eviction judgements
- Bus passes/car repair
- Securing employment
- Nevermore Batterers program
- Developed a group led by two parents to teach new parenting techniques and give general support/advice.

Ronda, her partner, and their five children were all staying in a one-bedroom apartment. With this overcrowding situation there was no such luxury as personal space, which would in any home cause friction amongst family members. This held true and they needed more space.

During her involvement we were able to help her satisfy a three-year-old eviction that was never closed due to a remaining judgment balance and court processing. Paying one of these judgements is confusing, expensive, and even hard to justify when a person is trying to save money to relocate, but without satisfaction even landlords who accept evictions may not move forward with rental applications. This was obstacle we experienced while searching for a place large enough for her family.

After this resolution and towards the end of her enrollment, she independently applied to move into a larger house with her family and was accepted. I sent her resources through St. Vincent DePaul and the Salvation Army to help her further furnish their new home. This family was able to change the situation that may have caused their initial involvement with Child Protective Services through support and guidance from The Stronger Families Program. I am excited to continue to help families move forward.

Goals for Year 2

- Increase number of families that agree to services
- Decrease number of early exits
- Mental health referrals/connections
- More focus groups and peer led discussions
- Increase participation in Neu life services
- Increase referral numbers of The Parenting Network

Thank You
