INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR W-2 BENEFITS

It is against W-2 rules to spend W-2 cash assistance through any debit card transaction at:

- Liquor stores
- Casinos, gambling casinos or gaming establishments
- Adult entertainment businesses where performers remove their clothing or perform in an unclothed state

It is against W-2 rules to use your debit card to spend your W-2 assistance to buy things, get cash back at the cash registers, or use the ATMs at these places.

You are expected to use your W-2 cash assistance only to support your family.

The Department of Children and Families is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. If you have a disability and need to access services, receive information in an alternate format, or need information translated to another language, please call the Bureau of Working Families at (608) 535-3665.
