Comments:

If you disagree with the LIFE program decision you have the right to request a Fact Finding review.

What is a Fact Finding review?

A Fact Finding review gives you the chance to tell why you think there has been a wrong decision about your eligibility. At the review, a person called the Fact Finder will hear from you and the agency to find out if the decision was right or wrong. You may bring a friend or family member with you to the Fact Finding. You may also be able to get free legal help. To learn more about free legal help, call 1-800-362-3904.

How long do you have to ask for a Fact Finding review?

Your request for a Fact Finding review must be made within 45 days of the date of this notice.

How do you request a Fact Finding review?

You can request a Fact Finding review by calling or writing your worker or W-2 agency shown on page 1 of this notice. If you will need a language translator, sign language interpreter or other accommodation for a disability during the Fact Finding review, please include that information in your request.
